Visitors:

Manuel B Garcia Jr., stated speaking on behalf of Kingpin's (the bowling alley), request that Mayor Tim McCauley and the City Council and other parties of relevance consider creating an ordinance(s) that create(s) the following modifications to the existing City Code of Ulysses Chapter 3, Beverages.

Manuel stated the justification for allowing the sales of Cereal Malt Beverages on Sundays is to stay economically competitive with surrounding cities and counties who have already made ordinances allowing the sale of CMB beverages for on-premises consumption at alcoholic establishments. Currently, we are only concerned with drinking establishments, not retail. Manuel also stated we make this request in good faith and with intention of increasing the economic attractiveness of our great city.

City Administrator Olson stated that he is willing to investigate if other businesses of this type would be interested in Sunday beer sales.

Mayor Tim McCauley stated that the council will review this, and bring it back at the next council meeting.

Citizen Miles Gibbons stated that him and his brother Chris Gibbons would like to open a bar, but this ordinance would be a factor of them opening up or not.
