STAFF COMMENTS

City Administrator Olson stated that the new server is in and working.

COUNCIL MEMBER’S COMMENTS

Council Member Guy stated that awhile back the city talked about stoking Frazier Lake with fish. Guy wanted to know where we are on that. City Administrator Olson stated that Pheasants Forever would like to go in on this with the city, because they have two fishing events each year and they would like to try Frazier Lake.

Council Member Duran stated that he is glad that the gentleman came into tonight to voice his concerns, but we may need to set a time limit to 5 minutes. Duran also stated that maybe the city would be able to put a street light up at Frazier Park by the fire pit so it is not so dark.

Council Member Diaz stated that it looks like the fall clean up went well, and he thanked the employees for their hard work. Diaz also stated that he had the opportunity to visit with Police Officer Ivan Rodriguez, and see the dog the city purchased.

Council Member Maas thanked everyone that came in tonight. Maas also stated that fall clean up fall fest, and the safety fest all went well.

Council Member Warner thanked the Chamber of Commerce for fall fest, and also thanked the Grant County Community Foundation for what they do in this community.

Mayor McCauley thanked the Grant County Community Foundation for what they do, and that the community needs to get involved with the events for Grant County Gives Week. McCauley stated that fall fest went well.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion by Council Member Guy, seconded by Council Member Duran to adjourn the meeting at 5:48p.m. Motion carried, 5 yeas. Nays, none.
